

Berlin. Be part of it!

The highlight of every journey is landing in Berlin. The German capital is one of Europe's three most popular cities - and for good reason, too. As a cosmopolitan city, Berlin has excellent flight connections right across Europe and the whole world, not only making Berlin an attractive destination, but also the perfect starting point for all European trips. So when are you going to land here? We look forward to seeing you at our stand in Hall 13.

Berlin starts here.
